

Wheelchair PASS Hands on Training

Participants will master the essential principles needed for proper securement, receive ample supervised hands-on securement practice, and learn trouble shooting practices for safely transporting difficult to secure mobility devices. This course is ideal for safety trainers, transportation managers, and drivers.

The following topics are covered:

Safety & Liability

Securement Equipment Operation

Securing the Wheelchair

Hands-On Practice

Why are some wheelchairs so difficult to transport?

Should I transport?

Securement Problem Solving

Transporting Scooters

New Securement Regulations